The Roaming Arnolds

William and Janice (Ward) Arnold with children Joe, Jan, John, and Jeff in December 1962.

Bill was a career Military man and the family moved all over the country. After his retirement from service they still roamed and he worked at various jobs including motel management.

I was forever getting "forwarding address expired" notices but eventually he would write again from their new residence. Bill shared his genealogy with me and obtained most of the early family documentation and information. I've lost track of him again. But wherever he is, I thank him for his help.

WILLIAM H. PATTON DIES LAST NIGHT

The Findlay Morning Republican contains the following account of the death of William H. Patton:

William H. Paton, 56, well known farmer and oil producer of near Risingsun, 25 miles northeast of Findlay, died at 6 o'clock Sunday evening in the Home and Hospital of injuries sustained as he was struck by an auto driven by a hit-skip driver almost directly in front of his home, Friday evening.

Patton died of a fractured skull. He received other body injuries that hastened his death. He was unconscious from the time of the accident until his death.

Wood county authorities are seeking the motorist, who was said to have been driving a Dodge sedan.

Patton, who had been working in an oil field nearby, was walking home after his day's work. He was only about 50 feet from his driveway entrance to his farm home when the speeding automobile struck him and hurled him into the ditch.

Patton was brought to the hospital here by an ambulance called from Wayne. No hope was held for his recovery after an examination was made by physicians.

The body was removed from the hospital to Risingsun last evening. Funeral plans had not been made, other than that the services will probably be held tomorrow from the home near Risingsun, with burial at Wayne, O.

Patton was born in Pennsylvania in 1870. He moved to Risingsun, about 10 years ago He is survived by his wife and seven children, as well as two sisters and one brother.

The autoist left the main road and ran over to the side of the road, knocked Mr. Patterson down and tore the harness off of one horse; the team ran away dragging the driver. Clifford Hall, over the body of Mr. Patton. Mr. Patton was badly bruised about the right cheek bone, and his skull was fractured. He was unconscious when help arrived and remained so until death.

William H. Patton, son of Joseph and Rosana Patton, was born in Kane county, Pa., Oct. 23, 1870. In his early life he was engaged in the oil business, but about 12 years ago he became interested in farming. When a young man he was baptized in the Presbyterian faith.
